INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Deadline for next issue

Non-refereed articles (reports) for the next issue of the journal are due by 31 July 2003.

Submission of manuscripts

Both members and non-members of the Society are eligible to publish in the Australasian Mycologist. All manuscripts for publication in the journal should be submitted as hard copy (with lines at least 1 _ spaced), and where possible as electronic copy. The editors request that authors adhere to the Australasian Mycologist style. Headings are bold 10 pt Ariel; centred upper case for the paper's title, centred upper and lower case for the second level headings and left aligned for third level headings. The remainder of the text is 10 pt Times New Roman. The authors' names and addresses are centred and italicised. Abbreviations follow Brummitt, R.K. & Powell, C.E. (1992). Authors of Plant Names. Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew. Please note that journal and book titles are given in full in the references. References cited must be either published or in press. Publications References are given in alphabetical order, not date order, if more than one reference is cited in one place in the text.

Manuscripts submitted for publication in the Australasian Mycologist should not be submitted to another journal waiting publication or have been previously published in another journal. Authors submitting manuscripts are responsible for obtaining the copyright holders' permission to reproduce any material for which the author does not hold copyright.

The journal can publish both colour plates and black and white photographs. Non-members may publish one page of photographs free of charge; more than one page of photographs will attract charges to cover the cost of the extra page(s). Please provide unmounted photographs. These must be of high quality and must be provided as hard copy. They will not be returned. Line drawings must be in black ink: these can be submitted electronically.

Manuscripts for the Australasian Mycologist should be sent to: Dr Cheryl Grgurinovic, ABRS, G.P.O. Box 787, Canberra, A.C.T. 2601, Australia.

Refereeing of articles

Authors can request that their articles be refereed. There will be two anonymous referees. These papers will be published as Research papers. Non-refereed articles will be published as Reports.

Reprints

Authors of research papers receive five free reprints. Others can be printed on request at the time of publication of the journal, but the author(s) will be charged full cost.

ADVERTISING IN THE JOURNAL

The journal will accept advertising for books, CD-ROMS, etc. on condition that the Society receives a free copy for its library. This must be received before the advertisement appears in the journal. Any other advertising for profit will attract charges of AU$200 a page. Conference advertising is free.
